

Removal of Absolute Disqualification for Unlicensed Driving Application

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995

Please use this form if you are applying for the removal of an absolute disqualification for a conviction for unlicensed driving.

Please read the following information carefully

You are only eligible to make application for the removal of an absolute disqualification if:

- (a) you were disqualified absolutely from holding or obtaining a driver licence for the offence of unlicensed driving before 13 March 2002
- (b) when you were disqualified absolutely for the unlicensed driving offence, you were not convicted and disqualified absolutely, at the same time of any other offence
For example—If you were convicted for an unlicensed driving offence and a drink driving offence at the same time you are not eligible to make this application.
- (c) you have not had an earlier application for the removal of your absolute disqualification refused by a court or the Department of Transport and Main Roads (the department) within the past 12 months.
