

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 (TORUM)

Note: Under Queensland law, the acquirer of a personalised number plate must lodge Part B of this form F2963 within 14 days of acquiring the personalised plates. A penalty may apply for failing to do so.

Information Sheet

- This form is in two parts, A and B. All acquirers and disposers must sign both parts. For example, if the personalised plates are currently registered in joint names then both parties must sign as disposers.
- Part A. Proof of Transfer/Notice of Disposal must be completed in full and signed by both the acquirers and disposers, and kept by the disposers until ownership has been transferred.
- Part B. Transfer Application must be completed in full and signed by both the acquirers and disposers. It must be submitted to the Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR) by the acquirers within 14 days of acquiring the personalised plates.
- This application is for the transfer of personalised number plate/s only. To transfer vehicle registration with the plate/s, a Transfer of Vehicle Registration Application (form F3520) must also be completed.
- Evidence of Identity (EOI), such as a Queensland (Qld) Driver Licence, is required at the time of making this application. Refer to separate Evidence of Identity Requirements for Individuals Infomation Sheet (S5385) or Evidence of Identity Requirements for Organisations Infomation Sheet (S5386) or www.tmr.qld.gov.au for requirements. Note: if the personalised number plate/s are to be registered in joint names both parties must provide suitable EOI.
- A transfer fee will be payable by the acquirer at the time of lodging this application unless one of the following exemption categories applies.

Transfer Fee exemption categories

- Transfer to a member of the immediate family of the disposer and the transfer is wholly by way of a gift. Immediate family is specified as being the spouse or parent or child of the person in whose name the personalised plates are currently recorded, or, the spouse or parent or child jointly with that person (the word spouse may refer to either married or de facto relationship).
- 2. Transfer to a beneficiary, administrator or executor of a deceased estate.
- 3. The recipient of a gift, (for example, birthday present), the initial transfer from the purchaser to the gift recipient is fee free provided the 'Fee Exempt' letter from Personalised Plates Queensland (PPQ) is provided.
- Personalised number plates recorded as being attached to a vehicle currently under a Number Plate Confiscation Notice issued by the Queensland Police Service, cannot be transferred during the confiscation period.
- Personalised plates remain the property of the State of Queensland.
- TMR may recall personalised plates, including after they have been on-sold, if the Chief Executive reasonably believes the combination is (or becomes) indecent or obscene, contrary to the public interest or likely to cause offence to a reasonable person.
- If TMR recalls personalised plates under the regulation, it is only obliged to offer a replacement plate in exchange. It is not obliged to offer any compensation.
- The terms and risks of any sale, including those facilitated by PPQ's Resale Noticeboard, are a matter between the acquirer and the disposer.

Personalised Number Plate/s Transfer Application

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 (TORUM)

Warning: You may be charged tolls or receive infringement notices for offences involving the personalised plates until the acquirer's details are recorded with TMR. If you believe the acquirer/s has not applied for the transfer of the personalised number plate/s, you may lodge this completed form with TMR.
