Please Note

- Please only fill out this application if you are lodging at a Queensland Government Agency Program Office, a Magistrates Court or local police station. If you are lodging at a TMR customer service centre you do not need to fill in this application.
- A vehicle currently under a Number Plate Confiscation Notice issued by the Queensland Police Service, cannot be registered during the confiscation period. Please contact the Queensland Police Service prior to attending.
- You should consider bringing the vehicle with you as it may require an inspection. Please ensure vehicle identification numbers can be located and are legible to avoid your application being delayed. A trailer being registered for the first time with an identifier issued by TMR must be presented for a departmental identity check. Not all sites conduct these inspections. Please check the departmental website prior to attending.
- A person who uses a conditionally registered vehicle must comply with all applicable conditions established for the vehicle and detailed on the Registration Certificate. Information about the codes can be found in the Safe Movement Guideline for Conditionally Registering a Vehicle in Queensland available online at www.qld.gov.au.
- If you are re-registering after your vehicle was cancelled due to COVID-19 and no changes have been made to the vehicle or registered operator/s, you do not need either of the following:
 - a Safety Certificate
 - a Certificate of Inspection if it was previously inspected within the previous 12 months (or 24 months for primary producers).

All questions in each applicable section must be answered.

Registration checklist

Use this checklist to ensure that you have the required documents and identification prior to attending TMR to register your vehicle. If you are unsure whether checklist items apply or if you would like further information, please visit www.qld.gov.au or call 13 23 80.

Evidence of Identity (for the registered operator/s and representative must be provided at the time of making an application):

If you don't have any of the below, bring other ID like a valid passport, keycard or Medicare Card. You will also need to complete a New Customer Application (form F3503) if you don't have a customer reference number.

Individuals: one of the following cards-

- Queensland Driver Licence (or one that has been current at any time within the last two years)
- Industry authority (for example, taxi licence)
- Marine Licence Indicator Card
- APA or Photo ID Card.

Organisations:

- Certification of Registration of a Company (displaying the ACN) issued by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC)
- Official company document such as a letter authorising someone to act on behalf of the organisation. The authorised person must bring evidence of identity.

Standard vehicle related documentation:

- Vehicle Registration Application* (form F3518)
- Vehicle Details Inspection Sheet* (form F3529)
- Garaging address:
 - If garaging address of the vehicle is different to the residential, provide evidence of the address where the vehicle will be garaged in Queensland (e.g. property rates notice, bank statement, Australian Taxation Office Assessment or phone account).
 - If you are not the owner/rentee/leasee of the property where the vehicle will be garaged, or don't have proof of a garage address, complete a Queensland Garage Address Statement (form F4408).
- Proof of origin:
 - Brand new vehicles - compliance plate fitted to the vehicle or a receipt of purchase which clearly states the vehicle's details
 - Imported vehicles - 'Vehicle Import Approval' that allows registration and use on roads
 - Second hand vehicles - previous Registration Certificate from any Australian jurisdiction or TMR has proof of previous registration on their records. (If applicant can't provide proof of origin and there is no proof of previous registration on records, a Statement of Acquisition must be completed).

Note: Customer must also provide evidence that a compliance plate is fitted to the vehicle (except for Conditional Registration).

Imported vehicles

- For left-hand drive vehicles less than 25 years old - steering needs to be converted to right-hand drive and a modification plate fitted. Call 13 23 80 for more information.
- CTP Certificate (Section 9). Note: only original copy accepted if CTP has been pre-purchased. Emails from insurers are acceptable provided the certificate is certified by the insurer as the original certificate. For a list of CTP insurers, please refer to the MAIC website at www.maic.qld.gov.au.
- Safety Certificate or Certificate of Inspection (Section 10) - for second-hand vehicles a current safety certificate or certificate of inspection is required. (The original is required for handwritten certificates or a copy of an electronic certificate may need to be produced on request). Note: Federal interstate registration - a current Certificate of Inspection is required and must not be dated more than 45 days prior to lodging this application.

Exemptions for Safety Certificate and Certificate of Inspection:

1. New vehicles with 500km or less on the odometer, and have not been previously registered in Australia or another country
2. Tractor-based mobile cranes (any size)
3. A demonstration vehicle, being registered to a dealer
4. Light trailers and caravans less than or equal to 750kg Aggregate Trailer Mass (ATM)
5. Wheelchairs
6. Vehicles garaged on a Queensland island where there is no Approved Inspection Station (AIS) for safety inspection certificate
7. For a motorbike, caravan and trailer (750kg up to and including 3.5t ATM) with a garage address outside of a 50km radius of an AIS station that can perform inspections for that type of vehicle
8. For light vehicles garaged in Queensland remote locations, please contact TMR on 13 23 80 for a list of remote locations
9. For vehicles that are garaged in one of the following local government areas; Aurukun, Barcoo, Boulia, Bulloo, Burke, Carpentaria, Cook, Croydon, Diamantina, Doomadgee, Etheridge, Hope Vale, Kowanyama, Lockhart River, Mapoon, Mornington, Napranum, Northern Peninsula Area, Pormpuraaw, Quilpie, Torres and Wujal Wujal
10. You cancelled your vehicle registration due to COVID-19, no other changes have been made to the vehicle or registered operator details. Additionally, for Certificate of Inspection vehicles, the certificate must have been issued within the previous 12 months (or 24 months for primary producers)
11. Heavy vehicles that are in the National Heavy Vehicle Accreditation Scheme Maintenance Module.

Gas Certificate (Section 11). Exemptions for Queensland Gas Certificate:

1. A new vehicle, never registered anywhere and fitted with a Gas Compliance Plate
2. Registering an unregistered vehicle in the same name that it was previously registered
3. For light vehicles garaged in Queensland remote locations, please contact TMR on 13 23 80 for a list of remote locations.
4. A demonstration vehicle, being registered to a dealer.

Certificate of Modification. If the vehicle was modified from its original form, a modification plate may need to be fitted before this application can be processed. For more information about vehicle modifications, go to 'Vehicle Modifications' page at www.qld.gov.au.

Additional requirements for heavy vehicles:

- HVRAS Inspection (if applicable). The Heavy Vehicle Registration Assessment Scheme (HVRAS) allows HVRAS accredited persons to inspect and measure heavy vehicles more than 4.5t Gross Vehicle Mass (GVM) and trailers more than 750kg ATM for the purpose of registration. Contact TMR on 13 23 80 for information.

Weighbridge Certificate (if applicable). Note: not required for trailers (except non-load carrying trailers). Contact TMR on 13 23 80 for information.

Additional requirements for light trailers:

Self-Assessment of Single-Axle Trailers (ATM 750kg or less) (form F3970). Note: Imported trailers must be brought to TMR for an identity check.

Concession requirements (Section 7)

Are you applying for concessional registration fees?

A concession application must be completed and proof of entitlement may need to be supplied with this application. To get an application form and for more information about vehicle registration concessions, go to www.qld.gov.au/transport/registration/fees/concession.

Payment

A fee is payable with this application. Visit www.qld.gov.au to get a free online quote.

Vehicle registration duty (Section 8)

Vehicle registration duty is collected by TMR as per the Duties Act 2001 which is administered by the Commissioner of State Revenue. Vehicle registration duty is payable on an application to register a vehicle unless an exemption applies.

Dutiable value

For a new vehicle with a list price, the dutiable value is the total of the vehicle's list price and the prices of all items of optional equipment not included in the list price (including GST).

For a used vehicle, or a new vehicle with no list price, the dutiable value is the greater of either the market value or the total consideration payable for the vehicle (including optional equipment and GST).

Vehicle registration duty is calculated on the dutiable value of a vehicle using the rates in the following tables:

Vehicle registration duty rates for motor vehicles (excluding light vehicles with a dutiable value over $100,000)
Electric and hybrid vehicles	$2.00 for each $100 or part of $100
Up to 4 cylinders or 2 rotors (including steam)	$3.00 for each $100 or part of $100
5 or 6 cylinder or 3 rotors	$3.50 for each $100 or part of $100
7 or more cylinders	$4.00 for each $100 or part of $100
Conditional registration and tractor-based mobile machinery	Charged at a fixed rate of $25.00

Vehicle registration duty rates for light vehicles (4.5t or under) with a dutiable value over $100,000
Electric and hybrid vehicle	$4.00 for each $100 or part of $100
Up to 4 cylinders or 2 rotors (including steam)	$5.00 for each $100 or part of $100
5 or 6 cylinder or 3 rotors	$5.50 for each $100 or part of $100
7 or more cylinders	$6.00 for each $100 or part of $100

Use the free Duty Calculator at www.qld.gov.au/transport/registration/fees/duty to see how much duty will cost.

Duty exemptions

Some of the vehicle registration duty exemptions are listed below. For eligibility requirements and other duty exemptions, go to www.qld.gov.au.

1. The vehicle was previously registered in Queensland or another state or territory and the application is made by the same registered operator or a relative of the person.
2. The vehicle is a trailer, caravan or motorised wheelchair.
3. The vehicle is being registered to a personal representative or a beneficiary of a deceased estate.
4. The vehicle is being registered to a person entitled to a prescribed service person's (ex-service person) concession.
5. The vehicle is being registered to a person who has lost the use of one or both legs and uses the vehicle for transport to and from their place of employment or education because they are unable to use public transport.
6. A vehicle dealer acquires a new vehicle as a demonstrator or a used vehicle for trading stock. The vehicle must be sold within one year.
7. The vehicle is being registered to an owner who has repossessed the vehicle under a hire purchase agreement or on termination of a hiring agreement.
8. The vehicle is being registered to a primary producer. The vehicle must be more than 6t GVM and is intended for use solely in connection with their business as a primary producer for five years.
9. The vehicle is being registered in the name of a charity, will be used mainly for charitable activities and is not part of an employment or salary package. Go to www.qld.gov.au for more information.
10. The vehicle is being registered to a local government or a government entity.
11. The vehicle is being registered to a consul or an officer of the consulate and is a national of the country represented.

Duty objection rights

When you lodge this application, it becomes an assessment of vehicle registration duty under the Duties Act. An objection against this assessment may be lodged with the Commissioner of State Revenue under Part 6 of the Taxation Administration Act 2001 within 60 days of lodgement.

If you are unable to meet any of the above requirements to register your vehicle or would like further information, please visit our website www.qld.gov.au or call 13 23 80.
