

Medical Condition Notification

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995

Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994

In this document, a reference to a medical condition means a mental or physical incapacity.

This form is to be used by you, as a Queensland driver licence holder, to notify the Department of Transport and Main Roads, as required by law, that you have a medical condition that is likely to adversely affect your ability to drive safely.

This medical condition may be one of the following—

- any permanent or long term medical condition
- any permanent or long term increase in, or other aggravation of a medical condition about which you have previously notified the department.

You are not required to notify the department if your medical condition is of a temporary nature.

If you are required to give the department a completed Medical Certificate for Motor Vehicle Driver (form 3712) with this form and if it is not provided, your driver licence will be immediately suspended.

Please print clearly in dark pen (not pencil or erasable ink).
