Does your disability require you be seated in a wheelchair when using taxis?

Always Never

I, declare that:

- my condition has not improved since my last application for membership of the TSS
- the information provided in this application is complete, true and correct in every detail.

I understand:

- there are penalties for providing false or misleading information
- I must observe the conditions governing the granting of the subsidy and acknowledge that misuse of my TSS smartcard will lead to my withdrawal from the scheme and/or legal action or other penalties imposed by TMR under the Transport Operations (Passenger Transport) Regulation
- costs associated with the completion of this form and photos are my responsibility.

Would you prefer to get updates about your TSS application or membership by email or post?

Email Post

If you choose email:

- we will send you most of the updates by email. You may still receive some letters by post (e.g. if your application is approved, we will send you a physical TSS membership card)
- you agree to check your email regularly and let us know if you change contact details
- you can call us to switch to receiving all updates by post instead of email.
