

Primary Producer Concession/Qualification Application

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 (TORUM)

- This application must be lodged in person at your nearest transport and motoring customer service centre or, if you live in a rural area, a QGAP office, Magistrate Court or local police station that provides vehicle registration services.
- This form must be completed and signed by the registered operator.
- Evidence of identity (EOI), such as a Queensland Driver Licence, must be provided at the time of lodgement.
- This form is used to apply for a Primary Producer qualification and/or concession on an eligible heavy vehicle. The concession is available for vehicles that are used by primary producers and co-operative associations involved in the business of primary production.
- A primary producer is a person whose main activity of their business is the production of primary produce. Any transportation of primary produce is incidental.
- Eligibility requirements can be found under primary producer and co-operative association concessions at www.qld.gov.au/transport.

6. Declaration

I declare that the restricted primary production vehicle will be used solely for the purpose of the primary production business.

I agree to inform TMR within 14 days of any changes that may affect my eligibility to retain the concession.

I acknowledge that the concession I am applying for is subject to conditions, including restricted use of the vehicle, and agree to only use the restricted primary production vehicle in accordance with the conditions of the concession.

I understand that if a restricted primary production vehicle on a concession is operated outside of the conditions of the concession, a penalty infringement notice may be issued, the concession may be revoked, and the full registration fee may become payable.

I consent to TMR verifying my EOI documents or information with the issuing authority or their agencies.
