

Special Interest Vehicle Registration Concession Application

Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 (TORUM)

- This form must be completed and signed by one registered operator that holds current membership with an incorporated car club or association.
- The SIV Guide sets out conditions imposed by the Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR) under section 230(3) of the Transport Operations (Road Use Management – Vehicle Registration) Regulation 2021.
- Registered operators or anyone driving a concessionally registered SIV should be familiar with the conditions of use. Use of a vehicle outside of the conditions, may result in a fine or the concession being withdrawn.
- Evidence of identity (EOI), such as a Queensland Driver Licence, must be provided at the time of lodgement. For more information, go to qld.gov.au/EvidenceOfIdentity.
- You can lodge your completed application and supporting documentation at a TMR customer service centre or, if you live in a rural area, a QGAP office, Magistrates Court or local police station that provides vehicle registration services.
- The compulsory third party (CTP) insurance class that applies to vehicles with a SIV concession is class 5. Registered vehicles will be changed by TMR to class 5 when the concession is applied. For details on CTP vehicle classes, go to maic.qld.gov.au.
- For more information about the SIV concessional registration scheme, go to qld.gov.au/specialinterestrego.

Tick documentation provided (if applicable):

- Current club membership with an incorporated vehicle club/association on club letterhead or official club documentation.
Note: A club membership card is not acceptable.
- Certificate of Incorporation as an historical society with a recognised interest in vehicle heritage. Note historical societies must have approval from the Licensing, Automated Vehicles and Registration unit of TMR to apply for a SIV concession
- Historic vehicles – Certification from a dating officer/club official of the vehicle's authenticity and year of manufacturer on club letterhead or official club documentation

Note: This is only required if the date of manufacture cannot be verified by TMR (from an existing or previous vehicle record, import papers, or manufacturer's plate)

- Street rods and hot rods – Certification from the Australian Street Rod Federation (ASRF) that the applicant is a current ASRF member and the vehicle was manufactured before 1949 or is a replica of a vehicle manufactured before 1949 on ASRF letterhead or official ASRF documentation.

6. Certification

I agree to inform TMR of any changes that may affect my eligibility to retain the concession within 14 days.

I acknowledge that the concession I am applying for is subject to conditions and agree to only use the vehicle in accordance with the conditions of the concession. For conditions, refer to the SIV guide located at qld.gov.au/specialinterestrego.

I understand that if a vehicle on a concession is operated outside of the conditions of the concession, a fine may be issued, the concession may be withdrawn, and the full registration fee may become payable.

I consent to TMR verifying my EOI documents or information with the issuing authority or their agencies. I certify that the information and statements provided in this application are true and correct.
